

RULES OF THE X-TOWER

1. To ensure a fun and safe experience I, as a customer, commit to following all the instructions, suggestions and orders given by the instructors of the X-Tower.
2. Once the tower instructor has checked and confirmed that my gear has been put on correctly, I will keep the gear on without adjusting it myself.
3. I will only go on the tower after my gear has been checked and the instructor has given me permission to do so.
4. I will respect others and I will not disturb their activities or run in the stairs.
5. For my part, I will take care of the gear and the structures of the tower by not damaging them intentionally. If I fail to follow this rule, I will be liable for the damages I cause.
6. I will immediately notify the X-Tower staff of any potential problems I notice.
7. I commit to following the instructions and signs on the tower, as well as all the maximum weight limits and safety distances.
8. I am aware that the activities of the X-Tower may cause mishaps such as scratches and bruises on the skin. I understand this and accept that the Adventure Park is in no way responsible for them.
9. As a responsible person I will not leave any items on the tower or throw anything down from the tower. I will notify the staff of any items or objects that do not belong on the X-Tower.
10. I recognise my own limits and will not take any unnecessary risks or undertake challenges that are too difficult for me. I am aware of the limitations caused by my physical condition and I will notify the staff of my condition if I think it may pose a risk in any of the X-Tower's activities. Unfortunately, you cannot take part in the X-Tower Adventure if you are:
 - Pregnant
 - or if you have:
 - A cardiovascular disease
 - A respiratory disease
 - Back problems or back injuries
 - Epilepsy or problems with your balance
11. In order to ensure the safety of the activities, I will not go on the tower under the influence of alcohol, narcotics or any other such substances. Bringing such substances to the X-Tower or the Adventure Park is prohibited. Smoking is also prohibited.
12. I am a responsible adventurer and I am aware that actions that break the rules may compromise my own personal safety and the safety of others.
13. The Adventure Park has a liability insurance policy, but it is up to each adventurer to take care of their own recreation insurance policies, just as it is in regular sports situations.
14. I am participating in the activities of the X-Tower voluntarily and of my own free will. I have understood the rules and risks of the X-Tower activities. I respect and commit to following the rules to guarantee my own safety and the safety of others
15. I am aware that the Adventure Park has the right to capture footage within the Adventure Park and the X-Tower for marketing and publicity purposes. If this is unacceptable to me, I will make a separate statement to that effect on this rules form.
16. I will not get a refund on the entrance fee in the event that I am unable to complete an X-Tower activity for reasons unrelated to the Pakka Adventure Park.
